Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc.

GENERAL RULES

1. All exhibitors must be a bona fide 4-H, FCCLA, or FFA member in good standing with a Smith County Club or Chapter. Members must be between the ages of 8 and 19 years of age, not yet graduated from high school.
2. The Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc. will comply with all requirements of H.B. 72 concerning eligibility for participation in extracurricular activities. 3. Each livestock exhibitor will be required to submit their Quality County number at time of entry proving they have taken and passed the exam appropriate for their age group. 4. All exhibitors must be under the supervision of a County Extension Agent, Agricultural Science Teacher, or FCCLA Advisor.
5. All projects must be exhibited and/or shown by their owner and the exhibitor must be present if their project is in the sale. However, exhibitor substitutions may be allowed under certain conditions. Exhibitors should submit a substitution form to the Board of Directors for consideration by 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2027. Substitutions will only be granted if certain conditions are met.
6. All protests must be presented in writing to the Board of Directors with a non-refundable $100. Protests must be submitted within one hour of the completion of the last market division on Thursday, March 25, 2027. The decision of the Board of Directors is final. Any other exhibitor that is affected by the outcome of a dispute will be required to follow the ruling without filing a second, redundant dispute.
7. Any animal is subject to drug testing.
8. Any drugs administered on or to animals must be used in strict accordance with label recommendation. Improper use of any drugs on animals is not condoned and disciplinary action, including the forfeiture of sale money, will be sought against any participants who may be involved in such activity.
9. All animal projects will abide by the guidelines in accordance with the Texas Animal Health Commission.
10. Any unruly, unfit, or diseased animal(s) will not be allowed to show and will need to be removed from the show grounds.
11. The decision of the judge will be final and no appeal shall be considered. Any exhibitor who shows disrespect to or attempts to interfere with a judge during their adjudication shall be promptly disqualified and excluded from competition.
12. No adults will be allowed in the show ring except judges, clerks, superintendents, board members, ring stewards, ribbon/award presenters, and official show photographers.
13. Superintendents will have full and complete control of all projects in their respective divisions.
14. Exhibitors will be required to furnish feed, water, and attend to their own animals until the conclusion of the Sale of Champions. Unattended animals will be removed from the grounds and all premium money and awards will be forfeited.
15. The Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc. and all supporting organizations will not be liable for fire, theft, accident, injury, etc.
16. All grooming of animals must be done with an exhibitor present.
17. To be eligible for showmanship, the exhibitor must have shown or entered the animal at the current year's show (excluding pee wee and adult). Showmanship is offered in all livestock shows and agriculture mechanics (except peewee and adults). Ages are as of January 1, 2027. The four showmanship classes are:

Market Rules

1. All market animals become the sole property of the SCJLS after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2027, if in the sale, but remain the responsibility of the exhibitor(s) until loaded for final disposition following the Sale of Champions. Any and all projects may be used at the discretion of the SCJLS Board after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2027.
    a. All project disposition sheets are due to the show office by 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2027. Once disposition sheets are turned in to the office, changes may NOT be made. If a livestock project is placed in the sale or on the floor trailer per the disposition sheet, the project disposition may not be changed nor can the project be removed from the grounds.
2. No student/exhibitor may approach a buyer during the Sale of Champions for any reason except to thank them for purchasing their project.
3. All animals must be in one family ownership at validation and must be in a single exhibitor’s name at entry. All sheep, goats, swine, breeding heifers, and steers must be state-validated by the Smith County Validation Committee at the time of validation and maintain this status through the show date (no county transfer of projects allowed during the feeding period). If a tag is lost, notify the appropriate committee chair, who may re-tag the animal. Any animal with an altered tag will be disqualified unless a re-tag is approved by the validation committee chair. Validation alone does not serve as the show entry.

4. All projects sold and add-ons will have a 6% commission taken out.
5. Buyer gifts from exhibitors will be allowed but should not exceed a $25.00 value.
6. Exhibitors who do not make the sale with their projects have two options:

a. Remove their projects from the ground by 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 25, 2026.

b. Place their livestock project on the "floor trailer," at which time the animal will be sold to the floor buyer at the price provided by the buyers. Exhibitors are responsible for the care and feeding until the animal is taken by the floor buyers.

7. Immediately following the Sale of Champions on Friday, March 26, 2027, all exhibitors and participants in the sale need to help with clean up. The penalty for not doing so may be a $100 fine which shall be deducted from the exhibitors sale check.
8. Within each market animal division and market agricultural mechanics, 50% of the projects that are exhibited will be sold. Horticulture will be capped at five (5) sale lots, food capped at four (4) sale lots, arts and crafts capped at four (4) sale lots, and photography capped at four (4) sale lots.
9. A minimum of five (5) projects will be sold per market animal division.
10. The judge of each market show will select the sale order.
11. Exhibitors are limited to two (2) lots in the premium sale with no more than one (1) lot from any single division, including poultry (roaster and broilers), rabbits (fryer and meat pen), and cattle (steers).
    a. If an exhibitor has two (2) entries in the same division they want considered for sale order, after their first entry is selected for the Sale of Champions, the remaining entries must be removed.
    b. An exhibitor may not win grand AND reserve champion in the same division. An exhibitor with two (2) grand champions; or two (2) reserve champions; or one (1) grand champion and one (1) reserve champion in two (2) different divisions must withdraw from any further competition in other market divisions excluding showmanship. An exhibitor has the right to pull their project(s) prior to the championship drive disqualifying themselves from the sale of said project.
12. Any exhibitor or those associated with the exhibitor who is found in violation of any standing rules, may result in the exhibitor being disqualified from the show and sale. Any disqualified market livestock projects will be placed on the floor truck and sold for floor price with the proceeds from said being paid to the exhibitor less than 6% commission.
