

Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc.

March 29-March 31, 2023

GENERAL RULES

1. All exhibitors must be bona fide 4-H, FCCLA, or FFA/Junior FFA members between the ages of 8 and in the third grade and 19 years of age not yet graduated from high school from the following districts: Arp, Bullard, Chapel Hill, Lindale, Troup, Tyler, Whitehouse, Winona, and any private/home-school in Smith County.
2. Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc. will comply with all requirements of H.B. 72 concerning eligibility for participation in extracurricular activities. Failure of a student to comply with this requirement will result in disqualification from participating in any Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc. Scholastic ineligibility by school prohibits participation by students or projects. All exhibitors must provide an official SCJLS Eligibility Form, signed by the school principal or counselor. These should be turned into the superintendent at the time of weigh-in/check-in at the show.
3. Each livestock exhibitor will be required to turn in their Quality Counts number on their entry form proving they have taken and passed the exam for their appropriate age group.
4. All market animals become the sole property of the SCJLS after 3:00 p.m. Thursday, March 30, 2023 if in the sale, but remain the responsibility of the exhibitor(s) until loaded for final disposition. Any and all projects may be used at the discretion of the SCJLS Board after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023.
5. All exhibitors must be under the supervision of the County Extension Agent, Agricultural Science Teacher, or FCCLA Teacher.
6. All projects must be exhibited and/or shown by their owner and the exhibitor must be present if their project is in the sale. However, exhibitor substitutions may be allowed under certain conditions. In all cases, the SCJLS Board of Directors must approve the exhibitor substitution and will do so only if certain conditions are met.
7. All protests must be presented in writing to the Superintendent of the division. Protests must be submitted within one hour of completion of the last market division show on Thursday, March 30, 2023. The protest must be submitted by the student and Club/Chapter Sponsor to the Superintendent. If the grievance is unresolved, the Superintendent will present the protest to the SCJLS Board of Directors with a non-refundable $100. The decision of the Board of Directors shall be final. Any other exhibitor that is affected by the outcome of a dispute will also be required or allowed to follow that ruling without filing a second, redundant dispute.

8. Any animal project is subject to drug testing.
9. All exhibits will abide by the guidelines in accordance with the Texas Animal Health Commission.
10. Any unruly, unfit, or diseased animals will not be allowed to show and need to be removed from the show grounds.
11. The decision of the awarding judge will be final and no appeal shall be considered. Any exhibitor who shows disrespect to or attempts to interfere with the judges during their adjudication shall be promptly excluded from competition. No adults will be allowed in the show ring except judges, clerks, superintendents, ring stewards, ribbon/award presenters, and photographers.
12. Superintendents will have full and complete charge of all livestock in their respective departments in accordance with the general rules. All animals will be judged on a placing basis.
13. Exhibitors will be required to furnish feed, water, and to attend to their own animals until the conclusion of the Sale of Champions. Unattended animals will be removed from the grounds and all premium money and awards will be forfeited.
14. The Smith County Junior Livestock Show and Scholarship Fund, Inc., its Board of Directors, and all supporting organizations will not be liable for any fire, theft, accident, etc. All concession rights have been reserved.
15. All grooming of animals must be done by the students, parents, family members, Agriculture Science Teachers, Country Extension Agents of the same club/chapter being represented; but, in all instances, the exhibitor should be present.
16. There will be four showmanship classes. These are for livestock projects only:
 - a. Peewee Class - 7 years old and under
 - b. Junior Class - 8-13 years of age and in the 3rd grade as of January 1, 2023

- c. Senior Class - 14 years of age and older as of January 1, 2023
 - i. To be eligible for Showmanship, the exhibitor must have shown the animal at the current year's show, except for Peewee exhibitors, who must borrow/use an animal that has been shown in the current year's show.
 - d. Adult showmanship - all entry fees will be put into the scholarship fund.
- 17. Exhibitors will be required to clean all trash and/or debris from their stall area at all times during the show and before being dismissed.
- 18. The act of force feeding and/or force watering is only allowed using a drench gun and only in the cheek of the animal.
- 19. No project(s) is to be removed before the approved times.
- 20. Any animal project is subject to inspection at the owner's pens any time after validation.
- 21. No unethical fitting of animals will be allowed (i.e. stomach pumping, airing, and physical alterations, etc.)
- 22. Fraternization with judges is strictly prohibited before, during, and after the show by managers, parents, contestants, or any representative thereof.
- 23. Violation of any rule will result in the inability to show projects.
- 24. These rules cannot be altered or interpreted except by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

MARKET DIVISION RULES

1. No student/exhibitor may approach a buyer during the sale for any reason except to thank them for purchasing their project.
2. Any unruly or unfit animals and those that cannot meet the weight requirements within each division will be sifted and must be removed from the grounds.
3. Exhibitors will be required to furnish feed and to attend to their animal.
4. All animals must be in one family ownership at validation date and must be in single owner's name at the final weigh-in.
5. All sheep, goat, swine, breeding heifers and steers must be State Validated by the Smith County State Validation Committee, at the time of validation and remain tagged through distribution. If a tag is lost, notify the appropriate Committee Chair who may re-tag the animal. Any animal with an altered tag will be disqualified unless a re-tag was approved by the Committee Chair. Validation, alone, does not serve as the show entry. All entries will be made online and payment as well as W-9 forms must be mailed to the show P.O. Box address by the posted deadline. No faxed or emailed entry forms will be accepted for any entries. This rule applies to all species listed.
6. All projects sold, and add-ons, will have an 8% commission taken out. Also, when necessary, additional money will be deducted from checks to compensate for animal shrink.
7. Gifts for buyers will be bought at the discretion of the Board of Directors.
 - a. Buyer's gifts from exhibitors will be allowed but should not exceed a $25.00 value.
8. Animal disposition options at the Sale of Champions are as follows (buyers options on animals purchased):
 - a. I will take the project that I have purchased.
 - b. I will donate the floor price of this purchase back to the seller.
 - c. I will donate the floor price purchase to the scholarship fund.
 - d. I will take the floor amount as a credit to my bill, giving up my ownership of the purchase.

9. Any drugs administered on or to animals must be used in strict accordance with label recommendation. Improper use of any drugs on animals is not condoned and disciplinary action, including the forfeiture of sale money, will be sought against any participants who may be involved in such activity.
10. Smith County Junior Livestock Show is a non-terminal show with a terminal sale. Exhibitors who make the sale with their project(s) have the option to remove their project(s) from the sale order by 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023. This excludes ALL Grand and Reserve Champion projects that are required to participate in the sale. The exhibitor and either a parent, or Agriculture Science Teacher, County Extension Agent, or FCCLA Teacher must sign a disposition form stating that they are removing their project(s) from the sale and that it will be removed from the grounds by 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023. No projects may be removed from the sale after 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023. Once an exhibitor has removed their project(s) from the sale, it cannot be reversed and must be removed from the grounds by 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023.
11. Exhibitors who do not make the sale with projects have 2 options:
 - a. Remove their projects from the grounds by 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 30, 2023, to take it home, or
 - b. Place their livestock project on the “floor trailer”, at which time the animal will be sold to the floor buyer at the price provided by the buyer. Exhibitors are responsible for the care and feeding until the animal is taken by the floor buyer.
12. Immediately following the Sale of Champions on Friday, March 31, 2023, all exhibitors and participants in the sale need to help with clean up. Also, each exhibitor or a representative of that exhibitor is REQUIRED to load their animal(s) onto the “floor” trailer. The penalty for not doing so shall be $100 fine which shall be deducted from the exhibitor's sale check.
13. Within each market animal division, horticulture, home economics, and agriculture mechanics divisions, 50% of the projects that are exhibited will be sold. A minimum of 5 projects will be sold per market division.

14. The judge of each show will select the sale order. Numbered tags will be used to place the sale order. The tags will be returned to the show superintendent to enter the exhibitor in the sale in the appropriate order.
15. Exhibitors are limited to two (2) lots in the premium sale with no more than one (1) lot from any single division including poultry (roasters and broilers fall under the same division-poultry), rabbits (single fryer and meat pens fall under the same division-rabbits), and cattle (steers and commercial heifers fall under the same division-cattle).
 - a. If an exhibitor has two (2) entries in the same division they want considered for sale order, after their first entry is selected, the remaining entry must be removed.
 - b. An exhibitor with two (2) grand champions; or two (2) reserve champions; or one (1) grand champion and one (1) reserve champion; in two (2) different divisions must withdraw from any further competition in other market divisions. An exhibitor has the right to pull their project prior to the championship drive disqualifying themselves from the sale of said project.
16. No unethical fitting of animals will be allowed (i.e. stomach pumping, airing, and physical alterations, etc.)
17. Each livestock exhibitor will be required to turn in their Quality Counts number on their entry form proving they have taken and passed the exam for their appropriate age group.
18. Any exhibitor or those associated with the exhibitor who is found in violation of any standing rules, will result in the exhibitor being disqualified from the show and sale. Market livestock projects will be placed on the floor truck and sold for floor price.
